Time to Give from The Heart!

Dear Friends,

Thanks so much to Milwaukee County Executive Scott Walker who has appointed Robert (Bob) Dennik and myself as Co-Chair of the 2006 Combined Giving Campaign. This is an awesome task and I am so pleased to be a Co-Chair this year! The Combined Giving Campaign allows all of us to make charitable donations in three categories: 1) United Way, 2) Community Health Charities, 3) Community Shares.

You may choose to give to a particular organization or agency in your neighborhood. For example, you may give to Horizons, Inc under the United Way category or the ABCD: After Breast Cancer Diagnosis under the Community Health Charities or the Repairers of the Breach, under the Community Shares category. All donations may be taken directly from your check and these donations are tax deductible!

On September 18th the Combined Giving Campaign Kick-Off. Our venture started at the Marcia Coggs Human Services Center, our next stop took us to meet and greet the fine employees of Mitchell International Airport and our final stop was at City Campus. We rode around in high style thanks to the House of Correction.

Dashal Young, Loan Executive Dave Sikorski, Ryan Daniels, Dick Gustafson, Me, Judy Pingel, Tom Pyne, County Executive Scott Walker, Richard Abelson and Sheila Cochran

A special shout-out to our Milwaukee County loan executives and Co-Chair: Judith Pingel, Jeff Aikin and David Sikorski and my Co-Chair Bob, they are great!

If any Milwaukee County Employee gives an increase of $25.00 of giving to United Way, their name will be placed in a drawing for a

“Harley Davidson” motorcycle. Unlike other loan executives, Milwaukee County’s loan executive do their regular job while fulfilling the responsibilities of loan executives. They certainly need to be applauded for going beyond the call of duty. So when you see Judy, Jeff and Dave, give them a “THANK YOU” because for four months out of the year these fine Milwaukee County Employees do two jobs.

You be blessed!
